Dear Friends,

Wow, what a whirlwind the past 3 months have been! We started our trip on September 1st. Traveling to SD, north to MN, and west to ID, WA, OR, CA, and AZ. We are now back with family in GA and will be traveling to the churches in the south during the holiday season. We have truly enjoyed our time sharing and getting to know so many Believers all over the US! These months have been fun, exciting, tiring, challenging, and well worth it! We are oh so grateful for the people who took us in, gave, and provided meals and the warmth of home for our family!

We know that God has called us to the field, we know it won't always be easy, but we would never be content until we followed the Lord and His calling on our lives.

We have more places to visit and share our ministry. If any of the next few months are like the last it will continue to be a blessing to us. I am reminded by Scripture the love that we experience from these Saints (most of which we have never met previously) is not by chance. In Philippians 2:1-4 it says "Therefore if there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and mercy, fulfill my joy by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others." In these verses we are called to be like-minded and of one accord. Then it goes on to tell us how: by not being selfish, being humble, and looking out for one another and their best interest. God calls us to unity and He provides the way to make it happen! Amen! It is so refreshing to see some of these aspects just mentioned being used by the Saints across the United States. Let us be encouraged and convicted to continue seeking to be of one mind and seeking each other's best interests!

We still have about 4 to 5 months left in the US traveling to raise support before we head out to the Philippines for training then to Malaysia. We should officially arrive in Malaysia in August of 2020. We really appreciate all who have been praying for us during this time of traveling.

We will be in GA, FL, AL, NC, TN, KY, WI, MI, and PA for the next 5 months. If any one would like to have us over or see us before we head out just let us know and we will do our best to work that out. Thank you to all those who are supporting us! We are forever grateful and can never mention it often enough! We are equally thankful for your prayers! Merry Christmas and God bless!!

In Christ,
